

To be a Changing Leadership

(A Leadership in Change)

Hospitality

There is a difference between Service and Hospitality

Service is to practice what you were taught

Hospitality is to think of how people feel

Service is about you and what you learned

Hospitality is about others and how they feel

Hospitality is not merely service but rather a way to make people happy, respected, and dignified. It is stepping in their shoes and trying to make them happy, to share the love of Christ or even get them out of their misery.

Two Biblical stories about Hospitality:

The good Samaritan (Luke 10: 25-37)

The story of Mary and Martha, (Luke 10 :38-42)

The Good Samaritan Story

The Samaritan was the hospitable one, while the Priest and the Levite were far from Hospitality. Those who should have been Hospitable missed the point

Mary and Martha Story

Martha represents the real hospitable person. Martha symbolizes the model of hospitality

Jesus did not appreciate all this Hospitality

THE 5 LEVELS OF LEADERSHIP

5 PINNACLE

Respect

People follow because of who you are and what you represent.

1 POSITION

Rights

People follow because they have to.

- 1. Position- People follow you because they have to .
- 2. Permission level; People follow because they want to;
relational leadership; listen well and observe and Serving attitude You grow beyond positions
- 3. Production level. People follow you because of what you have done for the Church or organization
- 4. People development level; People follow you because of what you have done for them .
- 5. Pinnacle level respect. People follow you because of who you are and what you represent.

Henry Neumann, says

Hospitality is a fundamental attitude towards our fellow human beings, it means to create a free space where the stranger can enter and become a friend instead of an enemy.

When we get in this new free space we are changed, the helped and the helper

With understanding leadership role in terms of hospitality then to be a leader is to

- ▶ Recognize that we have received the hospitality of Christ and we are living our leadership role in the church due to experiencing this hospitality:
- ▶ Being invited ourselves to the table of hospitality we reflect this hospitality in our paradigm of leadership

► We are not the lords of the table or those who invite but we are invited as well and we will always learn from what God offers us around the table. We sit in the circle of the free space to learn anew how to be the church today.

When we understand leadership as a call to live hospitality :

- ▶ We are not centered around what we understand things but open to learn anew how to live our leadership
- ▶ We continually seek change .
- ▶ We become attentive to hear God's voice in our circumstance as God opens our eyes to new styles of leadership

As the Presbyterian Church In the Middle NESSL the war situation opened our eyes to new realities

- ▶ The church is called to go outside its walls
- ▶ We as leaders are called to create new spaces of Hospitality
- ▶ As leaders we are called for new ways of hospitality; Rev. Ibrahim in Aleppo and Refugee schools.

As leaders God surprises us with new attitudes: The Muslim leader letter from Aleppo

As leaders God Surprises us in new places (Hasakieh and Tripoli)

Our task as a church is to create free space

Leadership is to take the risk in stepping into a new space

Leadership is not to change people but to offer them space where change can take place
;spiritual growth and transformation

leadership is not mere actions, But rather with what spirit we do hospitality, affects the impact of leadership.

Hospitality is not an act of pity but is rooted in our faith

It is not a troubled experience but an experience where we ask our lord what do you need from us and how do you want us to live our faith?

Hospitality is one way to cure the world from radicalism.

Are we ready to take the risk....
